Cuddie Doon.

BY ALEX. ANDERSON.

"The bairnies cuddle doon at nicht,
Wi' mickle faucht an' din:
'O, try an' sleep, ye waukrife rogues,
Your faither's comin' in.'
They never heed a word I speak:
I try to gie a froon,
But aye I hap them up an' cry,
'O, bairnies, cuddle doon.'

Wee Jamie wi' the curly hair—
He aye sleeps next the wa',
Bangs up an' cries, 'I want a piece,—
The rascal stares them a'.
I rin an' fetch them pieces, drinks,
They stop awee the soun',
Then craw the blankets up an' cry,
'Noo, weanies, cuddle doon.'

But ere five minutes gane wee Rab
Cries out, frae 'neath the claes,
'Mither, mak' Tam gie ower at ance.
He's kittlin' wi' his taes.'
The mischief's in that Tam for tricks,
He'd bother half the toun;
But aye I hap them up an' cry,
'O, bairnies, cuddle doon.'

At length they hear their father's fit,
An' as he steeks the door,
They turn their faces to the wa',
While Tam pretends to snore.
"Hae a' the weans been guid?' he asks,
As he pits off his shoon.
'The bairnies, John, are in their beds,
An' lang since cuddled doon.'

An' just afore we bed oorsels,
We look at oor wee lambs;
Tam has his airm roun' Rab's neck,
An' Rab his airm roun' Tam's.
I lift wee Jamie up the bed,
An' as I straik each croon,
I whisper till my heart fills up,
'O, bairnies, cuddle doon.

The bairnies cuddle doon at nicht
Wi' mirth that's dear to me;
But sune the big warl's cark an care
Will quaten doon their glee.
Yet, come what will to ilka ane,
May He who sits aboon
Aye whisper, tho' their pows be bauld,
'O, bairnies, cuddle doon.''

THE SEVRES VASES.—What is the peculiar spell and fascination, it is asked with amazement, which old china exercises upon many persons who are by no means deficient either in intelligence or common sense? At the present time there seems to be a perfect mania for collecting china which has any stamp of antiquity about it; and not only fashionable society, but even the sober good sense of the middle classes appears to have caught the infection; in fact the prices given at auction rooms for any rare specimens are really so astounding and unprecedented, that outsiders stand by with uplifted hands and eyebrows of amazement, while £6,000, for example, is being given for a couple of vases, which are to be put away in the collector's cabinet and shrouded from the common gaze henceforth, like the beauties of an Oriental harem. This is, of course, an extremely "fancy" price for old china; but it was given last year for a pair of Sevres vases at Christie's. Two noblemen—or their agents rather—were bidding against each other, and the price was run up to £6,000, which in twenty-eight years, it must be remembered, at compound interest, is equivalent to £24,000. It will be curious to trace the history of these vases in the year of grace 1902, if they are in existence then. A story is current that one of the persons to whom they formerly belonged was completely thrown off his balance by the unprecedented price given for them. He was heard exclaiming, "Am I alive, or am I dead? Pinch me that I may know whether I am in my senses or not! I bought them for £70 and sold them for £300; and now, gracious heavens! I have been done out of a fortune!"—[Frazer's Magazine.]

THE LOCK OF HAIR.—A very valuable collection of coins was offered for sale in Paris the other day, and among them was a 5-franc piece with the effigy of Prince Louis Napoleon, President of the French Republic, and the date of 1861. This coin, much to the surprise of a bystander not in the secret, ran up to 113 francs. Curious to know why a coin which, from its recent date could not, he imagined, be a rarity, fetched such a price, he asked the unsuccessful bidder why he had offered as much as 110 francs, and was met with the somewhat contemptuous reply, 'Why, don't you see it is a piece with the lock of hair' ('une piece a la meche')? More and more puzzled, he was obliged to ask an explanation, and was told that one of the first decrees issued after the 'coup d'etat' on the second of December referred to the coining of new money, which was to be stamped with the effigy of the Prince-President. One of the 5-franc pieces was brought to the Elysee, but the late Emperor having his attention taken up by other things, forgot all about it for a few days. When he came to examine it he noticed a lock of hair curled forward near the right temple, which displeased him, and he gave orders to have the mould altered. But, taking his silence for consent, the directors of the mint had commenced the issue, and twenty-three 5-franc pieces could not be withdrawn from circulation. These are the coins which are now so highly prized by collectors.

DESTRUCTION OF BIRDS AT THE SHRINE OF FASHION.—It is said that owing to the present style of decoration for ladies' hats, that some varieties of small birds are likely to be entirely exterminated. In England the household robin is becoming scarce from this cause; while the king-fisher, the finches and yellow-hammers are scarcely procurable. The seagull has furnished an almost countless number of wings, with which to complete the saucy looking hat of the stylish belle, who never thinks that she is wearing the price of life. An exchange recommends that if ladies must wear feathers in their hats, they should stick to the ostrich feather, as these being in perfection only when the season of moulting comes, are dropped with no injury to the bird; and now that domestication of the ostrich is made a practicable project, the supply can be made equal to demand.

FELL'S COFFEE, superior to any other manufactured on the Coast, may be obtained of all respectable dealers throughout the Province.

FRENCH MEDICINES
PREPARED BY
GRIMAULT & CO.,
PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS,
8, RUE VIVIENNE,
PARIS.

OF all the medicines offered to the public for many years past, none have met with such favorable reception, or been so generally approved by the Medical Profession, as those prepared by Grimault and Co.

The model laboratories of this firm, situated at Neuilly-sur Seine, and managed by Dr. Leconte, Professor in the Faculty of Medicine, ex-Pharmacist of the Hospitals of Paris, and formerly Assistant of Dr. Claude Bernard, Professor of Physiology at the College of France, offer guarantees to be found in no other establishment.

NURSING—PREGNANCY—EXHAUSTION.

Busart's Lactophosphate of Lime Preparations.

The preparations having Lactophosphate of Lime at their base, known as Dusart's Wine and Syrup are the most valuable tonic restoratives known. They promote the formation and the nutrition of tissues, render nurses' milk more rich and plentiful, and aid the formation of the infant during pregnancy. They stimulate the appetite, agree with feeble persons, convalescents, old people, and especially with children to counteract the tendency to rickets.

GRIMAULT & CO'S
Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

An excellent remedy for all affections of the chest; it relieves coughs, effectually prevents nocturnal perspiration, and restores the patient's strength. This syrup is the only one which, ever since 1857, has invariably been attended with satisfactory results—a fact due to the purity of the hypophosphite employed. Be sure to observe that it bears the signature of Grimault and Co., on bottles of an oval shape, the syrup being always of a rose colour.

GRIMAULT & CO'S
Matico Injection and Capsules.

Composed of the essence extracted from the plant so called, they have been constantly employed with the most brilliant success in a certain class of contagious disease.

They combine extraordinary efficacy with the advantage of never causing nausea, eructations, or pains in the stomach, as do the gelatinous capsules which contain Balsam of Copahu in a liquid state; or the strictures which result from the use of injections having a metalic basis.

Daily British Colonist.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 1st, 1876.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange is our authorized Agent in San Francisco.

A Long Vacation.

It is a subject for surprise and regret that the factious opposition of the late Government to the election of the new Ministers will have the effect of delaying wholesome legislation, of which the country stands so much in need. The feeble opposition threatened to Mr. Elliott will not involve a delay longer than two weeks; but as the ex-Ministers, in obedience to the dictates of an impotent rage, are preparing to "trot out" a candidate in Yale District against Mr. Vernon, the time that must elapse from their unpatriotic action before the House can meet again becomes a serious matter. It is unnecessary for us to point out that it is the country that will be a loser by the delay which is forced upon the new Ministry by the unprincipled character of the opposition—an opposition composed of men who, when in office, were the first to denounce as disloyal any person who dared question their right to enjoy what they pleasantly termed "the spoils of office." It is useless to appeal to the patriotism of men whose love of country consisted in voting themselves and their friends into fat positions and staying in them, in spite of popular opinion, by the perpetration of a series of unconstitutional acts which in any other Province would have insured their being turned out years ago. By a purchased majority the late Ministry held their positions through three long sessions, and now when the voice of the country is heard in condemnation of their wild scheme of discounting the future, they are doing their "little best" to hamper and annoy (they cannot defeat) their successors. We do not write this with the object of inducing them to withdraw their candidates, because we know that the electors are awaiting an opportunity to endorse the vote of the Assembly in condemning the extravagance and double-dealing of the late Ministry; but we do wish to put on record the fact (and we think the public will bear us out in the assertion) that any delay in legislation that may occur at this time, when the country is anxious to see the blunders of the past speedily rectified, will be due entirely to the factiousness of Messrs. Walkem, Beaven & Co. Their determination having been taken and the stalking-horses selected, the House must be prepared, to-day, for a long vacation.

Religion in Politics.

The insulting allusion to Jews in yesterday's "Standard" has excited the indignation of all classes in a community that owes allegiance to a Government the Premier of which is a Jew! The cause must indeed be a desperate one that requires to be bolstered up by an attack on a man's religion. No better offset to this unseemly attack could be found than is contained in the following paragraph which we clip from a late number of the San Francisco "News Letter:"

ISRAEL'S TRIUMPH.

Every man has his weak spot, and many have a strong one. Archilles was vulnerable only in his heel, and Samson was strong only when his hair was intact. The Sons of Israel find the neighborhood of the Red Sea to be the scene of their greatest triumphs, whilst the Egyptians have always found it a point of weakness. Old Moses, as the Israelitish leader, divided it at right angles, so that its bottom was as dry land, and it stood up on either side like a wall, so that Israel passed over in safety, whilst the Egyptians, who attempted to follow, were all drowned. History repeats itself. What is said to have occurred four thousand years ago, is substantially, but in a slightly different form, being re-enacted to-day. Egypt has swamped herself into debt by making an inroad into the Red Sea, whilst Israel, represented by Disraeli and the Rothschilds, have acchieved a great triumph through the weakness of their old taskmasters. No longer compelled to make bricks without straw, they now obtain a great canal without labor. The great highway once made for them by the Lord of Hosts is to-day their's, by aid of the Almighty Trinity of pounds shillings and pence. England finds her reward for the liberty which she early extended to the Jews. Her road to India is now safe. With Egypt, as her ally on one side, and a watery highway on which to plant her great naval strength on the other, she is entirely secure. Let it be remembered, however, that it was the house of Israel that did it. Be ye joyful, O nations, and let us all rejoice and be exceeding glad, for the name and power of Israel is again great throughout the land.

Contradiction.

EDITOR COLONIST:—I have only just seen your newspaper of the 19th inst. Mr. Fisher is wrong in charging me with having kept back any information respecting Lord Carnarvon's proposal to arbitrate. Any little thing that I did, informally, before Mr. Walkem reached England, was done with Lord Carnarvon's permission or approval. Her Majesty's Government attended to their own business, and no doubt made the usual and proper communications to the parties concerned.

During the year 1875 eighteen patients have been admitted to the Hospital, and have remained under treatment for periods aggregating 783 days, being 202 days in excess of the total time of treatment in 1874. Of the above patients, 17 have been discharged cured and one is still in the Hospital. The excess of 202 days in the period of treatment during the past year and the extra expense thereby entailed will fully account for the trifling deficit shown in the Treasurer's report.

Crippling Our Industries.

In judging a Government one must look at their acts—their policy—not their personnel. The question should be, have the Government of the day, by the judicious expenditure of public money and the honest discharge of their duties, contributed to the material advancement of the Province? All other questions are beside the real issue. We think we have clearly shown that the policy of the late Government has been fraught with danger to the commonwealth;—that they have not striven to advance the public interests by the encouragement of capital and labor amongst us. The disgraceful entanglement with Canada proves one proposition to be true; the wasteful expenditure of public money to swell the profits of a Birmingham iron manufacturing firm when there are firms in the Province who could have furnished the same machinery for less money than the product of the English firm can be laid down here, establishes the other. We refer to the pumping machinery for the graving-dock. This machinery will cost, free on board ship in the Thames, $31,500. Freight, duty and other charges, it is known, will add $15,000 to the original cost, making a total of about $46,000 clean gone out of the country without a solitary workingman benefiting a ha'porth by the transaction! The cry of our businessmen has ever been, give us population! And we have had a Government calling itself progressive, paternal and enterprising, sending a sum of money that would have kept 40 men in full employment for six months to feed the overfed manufacturers of England, whilst our own forges are cold and our workingmen standing idle! Forty-six thousand dollars! How much good that large sum, paid for labor in this Province and diatributed through the various channels of trade, might have done.

From San Francisco.

The steamship City of Panama, Capt. Seabury, arrived at Esquimalt Sunday morning, 3½ days from San Francisco, with the mails, Wells-Fargo's Express, a large freight, and the following passengers, in all 105:—

MR. ALFRED SELWYN, of the Geological Bureau, is making arrangements for a grand exhibition of the mineral resources of Canada at the Centennial. The Ottawa Citizen says he has lately returned from British Columbia, and has brought with him a fine collection of the minerals, grains, &c., of that province. He had a narrow escape from being one of the passengers of the ill-fated Pacific, as he had taken his passage, but was prevented from starting by a box from the mainland being delayed, which kept him another week. Mr. Selwyn has traveled a great deal through British Columbia and he gives it as his opinion that the province will never be developed until the Pacific railway is built. He considers there is no insuperable difficulties in the way of its construction, and that it is an enterprise which will pay Canada to incur a large debt to carry out to its completion.

HALL THIEVES.—A number of overcoats have been stolen within the past four weeks from halls and offices. People should look well to their door-fastenings, it being quite evident that a few of the light-fingered gentry have made Victoria their abiding place.

RETURNED.—Mr. J. H. McGrath who has been on a visit to his friends residing East returned per steamer City of Panama from San Francisco on Sunday last.

THE Odd Fellows propose to purchase a portion of the Ross Bay Cemetery.

The Gardiner's Canal Party.

The steamer Sir James Douglas, Capt. Morrison, will sail this morning with the Canadian Pacific Railway Survey party on board bound for Gardiner's Canal. The steamer will call at Nanaimo on the way up, whence she proceeds to Kitloop at the head of the canal, landing the party there. From this village the surveyors will travel eastward towards Lake Francis and will probably be at work some six weeks or two months. The Douglas during this time will remain at anchor at Kitloop forming a depot, well provisioned for the possible requirements of the party.

Mr. C. H. Gamsby will leave as engineer in charge; Mr. C. H. Secretan as transit-man; Mr. J. C. White as leveller; Mr. Geo. Hargreaves as topographer; Mr. Jas. Orr as Commissary; whilst the rest of the party will be compsed of Messrs. C. McDonald, W. Dewdney, J. C. McDonald, R. Thomas, E. Metcalf, G. Warwick, S. Brierly, and twelve Indians. The result and progress of the survey will be watched with interest here as immediately after the work is plotted the line of the Trans-Continental Railway will be definitely located. Whilst there is a bare possibility that a practicable route may be discovered via Gardner's Canal, there is on the other hand no doubt that Bute Inlet presents a line too favorable to be relinquished in favor of any other.

Puget Sound.

We are sorry to state that the Utsalady Mill Company have suspended operations the hands having all been dismissed and the mill shut down on Tuesday last. The liabilities of the Company are supposed to be upwards of $100,000, mostly owing to parties in California. The indebtedness at Utsalady and elsewhere on the Sound is large, however, and the losses to these creditors and the suspenaion of all work at the mill for months, as will probably be the case, is much to be regretted.

The Seattle Coal Transportation Company have been bringing in only about 200 tons per day during the week. By the latter part of next week, however, their large locomotive will be repaired and in running order, when the delivery here will be increased to 350 tons a day as heretofore.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Detectives were working busily to-day in a murder case in which the head of Wm. W. Simmons was found in the ship yard of John English on Milton street. From the proximity of the head to the river it was thought the body had been thrown in the water. Among those with whom the murdered man was most intimately acquainted and whom officers looked for most authentic information was Victor Kretz who was known also by the name of Andras Fucho. He appeared to be uneasy under questioning of the police and affected to speak very poor English. Kretz was kept in the police office two or three hours and was anxious to get away, saying to his friends that he was afraid he was to be locked up as a witness. Kretz knew nothing about the murder and he was allowed to go home. Among others interviewed were watchman on docks, one was found who said he saw a man answering the description of Kretz near the dock on Saturday morning and was quite positive about his identity. The detectives then supposed if Kretz was not guilty he knew something about the murder, and they went to his house 98 North Third street and arrested him. On the way to the station house he purposely cut his head, it bled freely and he kept rubbing it on his pants, when he was observed an examination of his clothing was made which revealed a large spot of dried blood on his pants, the detectives visited his house again and found a trunk locked and nailed together so tightly that it was opened with great difficulty. In this they found packed the arms and legs of the murdered victim, and in a boiler they found the trunk of body skinned and cut up the entrails had been removed and quick lime put inside so as to cause speedy decomposition. There had been a pool of blood on the floor but efforts had been made to obliterate it by scrubbing until the boards were almost white, on the dress of Mrs. Kretz, which had just been washed, were stains of blood. She said she scraped the floor at the request of her husband, and that Simmons called at their house on Thursday night and they all had drinks together, Simmons drank beer stronger than those of others, and that when he was stupified with liquor Krets took a hatchet and chopped his head off the act being witnessed by his little step daughter. Mrs Kretz said that she herself was upstairs. When Kretz heard the body was discovered he admitted his guilt and said that he had done it because he found victim in criminal intercourse with his wife, but Mrs. Kretz denies this.

DELAYED DESPATCHES.

Europe

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Queen Victoria, it has been officially announced, will open the coming session of Parliament in person. The Prince of Wales is expected to return in time to participate in the event. The announcement of the Queen's intention causes much favorable comment and no little speculation as to its meaning,

It has been decided by the inhabitants of the city of Dublin to invite Queen Victoria to visit Ireland during the coming summer. Should she decline, the invitation will be extended to the Prince of Wales.

The Americans in Dresden subscribed $1500 for her. Some of the German nobility offered to adopt her children, but she refused.

The "Morning Echo" says intelligence was received yesterday from Col. Gordon, dated at Duffle, stating that he was safe and well. The surgeon of the expedition had died, and Col. Gordon was the only white man remaining. He had just reached the rapids, which he feared were impassible. If so, the further exploration of the Nile in a steamer would be impracticable.

BUCHAREST, Jan. 26.—A person once employed by the government, named Barakivesko, who had been discharged from his position for embezzlement and refused reinstatement by the Prime Minister, yesterday attempted to assassinate him while he was going to the Chamber of Duputies. BOSTON, Jan. 27—Later details of the robbery of the Northampton National Bank on Tuesday night, by masked men state the result is something appalling. The table of securities taken shows a total of $670,000. Of course much of this is not negotiable, and so it is difficult to estimate the real loss to the bank and depositors. The bank officers offer a reward of $25,000 for the return of the property and conviction of the burglars. The loss falls comparatively light on the bank, the greater part of the securities belonging to special depositors.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 28-It is now believed that the whole amount of losses by the Northampton Bank robbery is over $1,000,000, nearly half of which is negotiable.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W P Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE: that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr J Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne: that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr Browne's—See TIMES, July 12, 1864.

The Public therefore are cautioned against using any other than

DR J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, or freshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures while medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma Cramp Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, be

The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J T Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec 31, 1864.

From A Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months severe suffering, and when other medicines had failed

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India reports (Dec 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr Collis Brownes' Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan 10, 1866—Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox remedical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Extract from the general Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE from which frequent fatal results have followed

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug 1, 1869, which states that Dr J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne: that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered. Sold in bottles at 1s 1½d, 2s 9d, 4s 6d, and 11s each.

CAUTION—None genuine without the words "Dr. J Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

"Sir,—My two little girls, aged respectively three and two years, showed symptoms of having worms, so I obtained some of your Worm Bon Bons from Mr. Bushby, and they effected such a thorough cure—in fact, I think, saved their lives.
